

Point III: Procedure followed in the decision making, process including channels of supervision and accountability

Evaluations of the achievements of the Institute are periodically done by the Science Advisory Committee (SAC), the Governing Body (GB) and The Society of the Institute. The approved Annual Reports of the Institute are placed in the Parliament. A chart indicating the processes is enclosed.